bwins first MotoGP Poker Tour winner takes chequered flag at Jerez

A spectacular, all-expenses paid weekend at one of Europe's hottest motorcycle racing events awaits the first winner of this year's MotoGP Poker Series. The success of the Austrian Jürgen Fez at the poker tables is being rewarded with three days of VIP hospitality at the Jerez MotoGP in southern Spain from 27th through to 29th April.

The VIP package includes a tour of the pits, meeting the MotoGP riders, exclusive grid access, entry into private trackside poker tournaments and hang-out with the world-famous bwin Grid Girls and a seat at a grand online poker final with a top prize of a 600CC Honda street bike worth €10,000!

More great 'money-can't-buy' prizes are on offer for the winners of the next two online MotoGP Poker Series events. The winners will be able to lap up more MotoGP VIP packages at either the MotoGP tour events in Mugello in Italy (13-15 July) and Brno in the Czech Republic's (24-26 August).

MotoGP Qualifiers run daily in the build-up to each MotoGP Poker Tour Stop. These $0.11 and $11 standard tournaments pay out normal prize pools with one added special touch: finish in the top ten and a tournament ticket will be parked in the player's account. With this ticket, they can then take part in one of the two MotoGP Poker Series Freeroll Finals.

The timetable for the next MotoGP Poker Tour stop at Mugello is as follows:

MotoGP Mugello Qualifiers - daily from 7 May - 15 June
$0.11 buy-ins: 20:00 (CET)
$11 buy-in: 21:00 (CET)

MotoGP Mugello Freeroll Finals
26 May and 16 June: 20:00 (CET)

MotoGP Poker Series Winner Package, MotoGP Mugello
13 -16 July

All players who have won a MotoGP Poker Series Package will get a ticket to the Grand Online Bike Final where a 600cc Honda street bike worth €10,000 will be up for grabs. This final will take place in later this year.
